AUTHORS RIGHTS

Ownership of copyright remains with the Authors, and provided that, when reproducing the Contribution or extracts from it, they acknowledge first and reference publication in the Journal. Authors also retain the following non-exclusive rights:

- To reproduce the Contribution in whole or in part in any printed volume (book or thesis) of which they are the author(s).
- They and any academic institution where they work at the time may reproduce the Contribution for the purpose of course teaching.
- To post a copy of the Contribution as accepted for publication after peer review (in Word or Tex format) on the Authors' own web site or institutional repository or the Author's funding body's archive, after publication of the printed or online edition of the Journal, provided that they also give a hyperlink from the Contribution to the Journal's web site.
- To reuse figures or tables created by them and contained in the Contribution in other works created by them.
